DRAW AND PAINT ON THURSDAY MORNINGS

Annette Ripplinger
503-267-2000

Henry and Vicki Beckman of Art in the Park and I are considering combining our efforts to Thursday mornings starting in November. We would be presenting a simple landscape drawing that students would draw and copy onto watercolor paper. Then with a limited palette, we would teach the basics of watercolor, mixing colors, composition, and creative application of paint. Within three hours, you might go home with a completed painting. Start up materials would involve some cost: a plastic palette, 2 or 3 good watercolor brushes, quality watercolor paper, and three or six professional grade paints. We'll give this a try November thru December in the Sonoran. Stay tuned!•

NOT YOUR MOTHER'S BOARD GAMES

Leslie Connelly

Bistro on Mondays at 1:00 pm. Last month we played Splendor, Farkle, Las Vegas Dice, Azul and a few others. It is a great way to keep your brain active. Stop by and play with us. No RSVP's or experience needed. •

Stop in the Mojave room anytime between 9:00 am and noon on Thursdays. If you have excess yarn, save it for next years Christmas Angel projects. Leslie will be in the room with her computer doing digital scrapbooking every week. No dues, no RSVP's needed. •

TENNIS CLUB

Patricia Murphy

Recreation Update

July, 2022

I hope this finds everyone safe and enjoying their summer, whether in the park or out. We continue to get everything together for next season and we hope to build on some new things from this past season and extend into next year.

This summer we have been doing a resident vs staff game, OH MY what laughs we are having. From smack talk between residents and staff, to just funny pictures from Pictionary or actions from Charades; we are really having a ball and want to continue these fun games days into season! If you are in the park, come up and have some fun and some huge laughs. Ginny is going to put together a Summer Olympics event, so look for more information and come sign up.

Chef Arthur is continuing his wonderful food through the summer. Yes, we are still encouraging ticket purchases, so Chef knows how much food to buy and we always try to have some tickets available at the event. Chef and I sat down and talked about next season and how to move extra food since we do not have an a la carte restaurant to run specials through, we came up with a Chef's Special Soup and Salad/Sandwich bar starting on Fridays during season! We will publish on Monday what the bar will be for Friday, this will be sent out through email and shown in the Baja Bistro. Another area Chef and I have been talking about is coffee and donuts. Unfortunately, the cost of donuts continues to go up and we are looking at different cost saving ideas to rotate through for Monday Grapevines. Some offerings we are looking at are muffins, coffee cake, Danishes, and other alternatives. We thank everyone for their understanding and hopefully offering some even more delicious choices.

The Concert Series continues to be a great hit, there are only 4 seats left in the evening show (none of them are seated together). If you are not aware, we booked all the shows for a matinee performance as well, we are up to 35 tickets sold for the matinee. Individual tickets for each show will be available for purchase about 8 weeks before the event, at that time we will no longer offer series tickets. You can see all the show details in the flyer that is in this newsletter.

All Fundraisers are booked and confirmed, along with entertainment. All clubs should be getting their confirmations in the next week, along with the room reservation confirmation. Please watch for emails from me and Jeanette, Jeanette's will be for private bookings. We have been working with a new program this summer and we hope to be able to offer online forms next year for everyone to fill out, reducing paper and making it easier for our residents.

The summer newsletter will be coming out soon and I am going to share a part of my article that is in there. Costs continue to rise for ink and paper, along with shortages. As we try to continue to offer the VO Out-Lines, we are faced with the reality of we need to make some changes. We are going to stay with printing once a month throughout the year. Jon Williams (OutLines Coordinator), Ginny Helmbrecht (assistant activities director) and I will be sitting down in the next few weeks to write the timeline for when everything will be do and the date the newsletters will be published. We will share this with staff, boards, committees, clubs and homeowners. We will be working towards an online document to fill out for submissions to the newsletter as well. We will build on our weekly emails and try to offer a mini-newsletter email once a week, this might be something you opt in for so we are not inundating people with emails they do not want.

Several residents have been coming to us about the leg press in the EPC, we can officially say it has been ordered and will take 6-8 weeks to get in. The company that made that machine has gone out of business due to Covid. We thought we could contract with a company to get the cable needed, we could only get the cable long enough or the right thickness but not both. After exhausting all options, we got the new one ordered. We will be putting a fitness group together this fall to look at all our fitness equipment in the EPC. Working along with Marathon Fitness, we will be coming up with a long-range plan for all the equipment in the fitness center. If you are interested in the committee, please reach out to me.

Everyone stay safe this summer, from raging rivers in Montana to high heat in the Midwest states. If you have any questions, suggestions or are interested in helping the Recreation Department; please reach out to me at recdir@ventureoutvresort.com.

Manager's Corner

July, 2022

Occupancy is currently at 522 units or 30% vs. 542 at the last report and 394 one-year prior. There are currently 40 renters in the park. Yes we do have more people staying year round. Read the Summer Newsletter for more information on those stats.

We are now in the 'dog days' of summer, we got here well before June 21'st with some record setting 113 degree days and then it 'cooled off' a bit down into the mere 100's for a while. When it is so insufferable to walk to your car, imagine our staff working in it most of the day. We do arrange the jobs in the summer, to have them concentrate on the outdoor projects in the morning and then move inside buildings in the afternoons to do maintenance.

The same is true for the contractors, they will start early in the morning and stop usually by 1:00 - 2:00 at the latest. This year our tree trimmer is on time, but once again, they had trouble fielding a large crew. We have only two lifts working in the park vs. the normal four. Everyone is dealing with a severe labor shortage which does not appear to be going away. Maintenance is still trying to fill two positions that have been open for months. The vast majority of applicants are either not a good fit or do not appear for the interview, apparently only applying in order qualify for their unemployment benefits.

The Summer Newsletter is out now, most of the homeowners will receive that via a FASTMAIL, and a link to the web site. You can also go directly to the web site without the link and read it any time. Thanks to all of you who have given us your e-mail and opted in for these electronic notices, as well as your quarterly statements, (that by law must be sent out). This saves you a lot of money. It was not so long ago that we printed and mailed every single one of these 1749 packets at a cost of thousands of dollars. Now with a click of a button, it is in your 'in box'. Only 88 packets had to be mailed this year. This is especially advantageous this year, because paper is scarce as well as ink supplies. We don't know when this supply chain problem is going to start working itself out, but apparently no time soon. So, these alternative methods of communication are now the standard.

We had a small Covid outbreak in our Admin office and from time to time, a resident will call in and let us know they were sick and what kind of contact they had. Covid is still out there among us. The three shots, for the most part seems to reduce it to a cold, but others have become quite ill, so again, take your normal precautions when in a crowd. It does seem inevitable, that it is going to become a part of our lives and not really go away, and we just have to find a way to live with it.

Construction on the west pool is now in the excavation process. Besides the gas line being only inches below the old Kool Deck (good thing smoking around the pool had long been banned!), we have found that many of the surrounding street lights were tied into the electrical panels at the pool, a run here and a run there, no real pattern to it, so staff has been helping Brycon trace all of these lines down, identifying them so that they can be kept live, and then hooked up again, once the pool panels are re-energized. All of this will be a moot point once the new streetlights are installed in the 200 and 300 blocks, but until then, we have to keep them live.

The Storm Drain lining will take place in October, primarily because of how we are funding it with quarterly payments, and this project will be completed in 30 days. That is a large amount of funds going out at once. We had a pre-construction meeting this week and I requested they video parts of this operation, so that we can show that in the fall. It will be a very interesting project and an engineer's delight.

For those of you who do not already know, Friday is Leo Fanelli's last day. After 25 years, Leo decided it was time to retire, but you will still see him around as he works for many homeowners in the park. Leo too is grateful to be out of the heat unless he chooses to work in it. We thank Leo for his many years of service and dedication to Venture Out.

One final important reminder. IF your Air Conditioning goes out, notify Security, and stay in the Sonoran room at the Community Center. Do NOT stay in your unit. We do allow your pets in that room only while you are waiting for repair. You can absolutely stay overnight in there and Security will check on you from time to time.

Have a wonderful Fourth of July and STAY COOL.
